

M

Membership Communication System

C

Having become a member of the WI you can now receive free copies of the National WI magazine, WI Life. There are eight editions of the magazine per year* and each issue will be posted direct to your home. In order for that to happen your details must be on the National Federation's database. This is called the MCS – Membership Communication System.

* Feb, Mar, April, May, July, Sep, Oct, Nov

S

All information is securely held and is not available to the general public, nor will we pass your details on to outside organisations.

Please complete this form - POSTCODE is essential - and then

• Give it to your WI's secretary/MCS representative

NEW MEMBER DETAILS

(please write clearly, block capitals preferred for name and address)

WI

Title (Mrs/Miss/Ms) Forename

Surname

Address

Town

County Postcode

Date joined WI

Daytime telephone..... Evening telephone.....

Email Mobile number

If you have given an email address you can also opt to become an 'online learner' to access the WI's training site - the WI Moodle. Here you can discover lots of information about all aspects of the WI in general and running your own WI.

"I would like to become an 'online learner" Yes No

Should you indicate 'Yes' you will receive an email from NFWI with full login details for the WI Moodle.

Type of Membership (full or dual)

• If dual please state your primary/main WI

Is this your first time as a WI member? (please tick) Yes No

